

Bad Guy

Who told you that the devil is the bad guy?

Get on my way to look behind the cross and tell me

who`s the bad guy

Behind the walls there`re many secrets

And no one should have seen the priests are often not the ones they really should have been the past, the present and the future

No changin will be there the beast that stands in front of them can`t hide an` get out everywhere

Now tell me if you see what`s on

I think there`s something going wrong

You know that I come out of hell but justice won`t get a breathing spell time has come – the truth -to say

But deepest scars that THEY can`t pay
