

You babe

You Babe oh you don't love me right?
I think that you are like my kryptonite
But it's okay, I met a girl tonight
And she reminds me how to feel Allright!

Now it's been a year since I kissed you at the pier
But the time took us away and I still need you here to stay
In my dreams I'm dreaming of your pretty face
It's true
Just everything turns grey when I see him at your place
With you

Refrain:

Oh
You Babe, oh you don't love me right?
I think that you like my kryptonite
But it's okay, I met a girl tonight
And she reminds me how to feel alright

After a lot of time alone I saw you you were on your own
I asked myself however I should tell you hello
But the shards of my heart are already swept away
So I turn back to my world and there will be a better day

Refrain

You Babe, oh you don't love me right?
I think that you like my kryptonite
But it's okay, I met a girl tonight
And she reminds me how to feel alright.

Bridge:

And the time just Flys....
So fast that I can't denie....
And finally
there should be nothing left to hide behind
But why do I still need you by my side?

Refrain

You Babe, oh you don't love me right?
I might say that you like my kryptonite
Well it's okay , I met a girl tonight
But she won't help me feeling allright

You Babe, oh you don't love me right?
I might say that you like my kryptonite
Well it's okay , I met a girl tonight
But she won't help me feeling allright
