

Your hearts sound

What is the sound your heart is making?

What is this lovely sound?

A melody of the greatest feelings

As my soul has never heard.

These notes are wild, warm and gentle

Like a pillow, full of love,

I can see the colors your heart is painting

In my amorous head and above.

Pink, blue, orange and red,

Like in a magical world.

The colors are spreading on sky and fields

But all I notice is you.
