

I am here and you are there

I am the flower in your garden, you will never pick.

I am the nice guy in your class, you will never notice.

I am the Butterfly in your sky, you will never try to catch.

I am the song on your MP3 player, you will always skip.

I am the book in your room, you will never read.

I am the Bird on your windowsill, you will never listen to.

I am the boy, who does anything for you at any time.

I am the boy, who listens to your problems all the time.

I am the boy, who knows who you are and why.

I am the boy, who hangs out with you when you're bored.

I am the boy, who lends you his shoulder when you cry.

I am the boy, who loves you forever and ever and you will never notice it because you are too busy loving the wrong guys.

I am your best friend and I will be there for you when that guy breaks up again because he found someone else.

I am the one you will never notice but the one who has noticed you long ago.

I am here and you are there.
