

without

We stay here
And can't go on.
We fel the fear
but saying none.

I send to god a litle pray,
cause together we're alone,
but there is no other way.
Our hearts get still to stone.

We don't go far
from love to hate
I want go back
but it's to late.

The day we met was warm and nice.
At this time for you i'll dy.
Now our world is made of ice
and I will see it was a ly.
