

To your 13th birthday

There are thirteen reasons why to spread your wings and fly, to step into teenager's world, which is quite new and sometimes swirled

It's not a year of death and fear, but excitement, love and tear
You don't believe in superstition, go on with confidence and some ambition

You have your singularity, your openness and verity
There are thirteen fairys, thirteen rooms
Life is mysterious - and it blooms
