

just a dream

i go back into my tunnel back into the darkness dark as the thoughts in my head all those words out, just spread i just want her by my side inside my heart feelings bite she doesn't care, why so i stay down there, cry.

there, a well known beat open my eyes, take a seat it was only just a dream no need to scream
you're lying next to me that's the place i wanna be.
