

Thoughts

World's crushing down on me..

All the broken pieces of my fractured mind..

Rebuild anger and confusion..

Memories tear me apart..

Represents the loss of the loved ones..

Feels like a decade spent forever in this nightmare..

No saving from this freezing cold..

Daggered from the ice deep down..

Howling in sound of misery..

Pain's too deep to repair..

Bury it below your fate..

Otherwise it will consume you from the inside..
