I am not sure If I have ever loved anyone. Tried to figure out what the fuck is wrong with me for years. Single pretty much my whole life. Don't think very much of myself and never have. Great family, normal friends. scared of someone finding out what a wanker I am, can't even reply to a text message for a date. Sure I will get ripped for this but if anyone has any suggestions I would appreciate this greatly. Straight but once a woman approaches me I like I freeze like a fucking ice cube. Worries now as I ain't getting any younger. Great song, not sure why this made me make this message?
