

Veil

When there was this sight
I just knew you were the right
But I've always had in mind
I'd never be your shining light

Accepted everything,
Pretended anything.
But you're a veil in front of my eyes
A veil in front of my eyes...

When I look into your eyes again
I'm lost in thoughts
Like the power of Gods
And then I'm this Lovefool sayin'
"Sorry I don't know what to say"
'Cause that's what's written in the grounds

Then I'm in unforgettable pain
I want you to care about mine
Even these words, I don't even mean
Because you're in this line

Accepted everything,
Pretended anything.
But you're a veil in front of my eyes
A veil in front of my eyes...

When I look into your eyes again
I'm lost in thoughts
Like the power of Gods
And then I'm this Lovefool sayin'
"Sorry I don't know what to say"
'Cause that's what's written in the grounds

I wish you would help me
I have to get out here
You need to lead
You have to be
You have to be with me
You have to be with me
I need this
I need you

Accepted everything,
Pretended anything.
But you're a veil in front of my eyes
A veil in front of my eyes...

When I look into your eyes again
I'm lost in thoughts
Like the power of Gods

But you're a veil in front of my eyes
A veil in front of my eyes

Can I be your veil?
