

Alexander Lotz

humanity

I lose myself in my life do not know what I should do everything I take back the knife to see how I can hurt myself

lonely forever
forever helpless

I am a cool man
see things as they are
I can not stand my man
I find myself in your war and I see light in clear follow him, but not

lonely forever

the live is full of nonsense
if you think about it
the live is full of delusions

forever helpless
we are alone
