

Stupid game

(Verse 1:)

Loving is easy they said.
It's a string you can hold on to
if everything else seems hopeless to you.

I just wanna know
if you get wasted at parties too?
Make out with strangers
in an attempt to distract from the fact that you miss me too.

(Chorus:)

So tell me
did you ever feel those butterflies flying around,
or did your touch lie?
Do you ever think about our time,
while spilling tears on your jumper at night?
Does your heart scream inside and stop,
whenever my name drops?
Are you hurting like I do,
or was it all just a stupid game for you?

(Vers 2:)

Healing is easy they said,
but are they crying in the shower too
torturing themselves by thinking 'bout you?

My friend said don't take it that hard,
just love someone else,
before your falling apart.

But I just wanna know,

(Chorus:)

Did you ever feel those butterflies flying around,
or did your touch lie?
Do you ever think about our time,
while spilling tears on your jumper at night?
Does your heart scream inside and stop,
whenever my name drops?
Are you hurting like I do,
or was it all just a stupid game for you?

Yeah are you crying in the shower too?

Or was it just,

Yeah was it just a stupid game for you?
