

Shadows

The Darkness holding me tight, there is no light shining through.

I am so far away, far away from you.

Try to find a way, to let you go.

But still seeing shadows, shadows from you.

In the morning, don't want to awake.

I feel myself somehow misplaced.

Nothing will never be the same.

Even when the sky is falling down.

You will be the last thing I still know.

Even when the world is falling apart.

You will be, forever in my heart.

The Darkness stops my thoughts about you.

A light shining on my scars.

In my mind I still asking, who you are?

You find a way, to let me go.

Your light erased all the shadows, shadows of me.

In the morning you wake up, don't waste just one thought about me.

You are right here, where you are.

Even when the sky is falling down.

You will be the last thing I still know.

Even when the world is falling apart.

You will be, forever in my heart.
